

Objectives

After studying this lecture the students will be able to understand that

- a point is earned by forcing the opposing side to miss the shuttlecock with their racket resulting in it touching the ground .
- a point is awarded to one side if the opposing side commits an error