

SUMMARY

In order to standardise the control over the game in all countries, IBF issues recommendations to court officials. Recommendations issued by IBF plays a very important role in advising umpires as it suggests them how to control a match firmly and with fairness, without being officious. These recommendations not only provide helpful guidance to umpire also to line judges so that they can perform their duties efficiently. It should be kept in mind by all the officials that game is for the players and their duty is to guide them to play game in accordance with basic rules of the game.
