

Objectives

On completion of the topic, one should be able to understand

- the miniature of football games
- the playing or receiving of the ball
- the planning of grassroots training session
- the techniques like development of feeling for the ball and ball control