

GLOSSARY

Balance: The process of achieving or maintaining equilibrium.

Dynamic Balance: It is the ability of an object to balance while in motion or switching between positions

Norms: Population average values based on large samples and appropriate statistical techniques.

Measurement: The process of collecting information.