OBJECTIVE

- To understand the sense of bi-variate and multi-variate data.
- To study various types of the relationship between the variables.
- To study various methods to find the degree and direction of the relationship between the quantitative phenomena and the qualitative phenomena.
- To study statistical inference about the correlation coefficient.