

ASSIGNMENT

1. Go to an international airport near you in groups of three or four students. Meet people of different countries if possible and try to identify cross cultural differences.
2. From the internet try to find out more cross cultural issues which are not depicted in our lecture.