

ASSIGNMENT

1. Externalities exist due to market failure. What is the source of market failure that causes externalities?
2. Why do economists use the word external to describe third-party effects that are harmful or beneficial?
3. What's the difference between a pure public good and a near-public good?
4. Explain diagrammatically the External economies in Production