

[Glossary]

Introduction to Organisational Behavior Part-2

Subject:	Business Economics
Course:	B.A., 4 th Semester, Undergraduate
Paper No. & Title:	Paper – 402 Organisational Behavior
Unit No. & Title:	Unit - 1 Introduction to Organisational Behavior
Lecture No. & Title:	Lecture – 2 Introduction to Organisational Behavior Part-2

Glossary

1. Internal environment can be defined as the conditions, factors, and elements within an enterprise that influences the activities, choices made by the firm, and especially the behavior of the employees.
2. External environment can be defined as outside factors that affect the company's ability to operate.
3. Structure is the layout design of an organization. It is the construction and arrangement of relationships and designing strategies according to organizational goal.