

[References]

Prediction in Linear Models and Multicollinearity

Subject:	Business Economics
Course:	B. A. (Hons.), 5 th Semester, Undergraduate
Paper No. & Title:	Paper – 531 Elective Paper Q1 – Advanced Econometrics
Unit No. & Title:	Unit – 1 Relaxing the Assumptions of The Classical Linear Model
Lecture No. & Title:	Lecture – 3 Prediction in Linear Models and Multicollinearity

References

Books

1. Christopher Dougherty (2007) Introductory , Econometrics 3rd edition, oxford university , press.
2. Damodar N . Gujarati (1995) Basic Econometrics 3rd edition Mc Graw Hill Inc. , NY
3. Damodar N. Gujarati , Dawnc Porter and angeetha Gunasekar (2012) Basic Econometrics Tata Mc Graw Hill Education pvt Ltd. New Delhi
4. Johnston J. (1990) Text Book Of Econometrics Tata Mc Graw Hill International Book Company , 3rd edition , New Delhi.
5. Roberto Pedace (2013) Econometrics for Dummies John Wiley & sons , NJ

Link

- <http://www.dummies.com/extras/econometrics>
- <http://www.dummies.com/cheat sheat/econometrics>
- <http://www.mhhe.com/sie -gujarati se>