

Summary

This session will help the students to understand the working of the international financial system. After going through this chapter, the students will be able to understand the exchange rate determination under the various exchange rate mechanism. This chapter deals with the exchange rate determination under the Gold Standard and the Gold Exchange Standard Mechanism.