

ASSIGNMENT

1. If agricultural production in a country increases significantly, but there is not significant reduction in under nourishment what does it imply?
2. State and explain the definition of economic growth given by Simon Kuznets.
3. Discuss the characteristic features of the growth process of developed countries as explained by Simon Kuznets.
4. Does a satisfying growth rate of national income mean satisfying state of education, public health and gender equality?
5. What should be done to enhance the spread of economic growth to all segments of the population?