

ASSIGNMENT

1. Can welfare in all sectors and of all people be enhanced at the same time? Can some people be made better off and some may get worse off in a growth process?
2. When can growth transform into development?
3. Can we list down desired changes which must come about to enhance development in India along with a high growth rate of national income?
4. Give some definitions of economic development. According to you, which is the most comprehensive definition of development?
5. Draw a difference between growth and development.
6. Discuss the indicators of economic development.
7. Give the objectives of economic development given by Todaro.