

ASSIGNMENT

1. Describe the characteristic features of developing countries.
2. Describe the characteristic features of developed countries.
3. State the reasons for low productivity of each of the four factors of production in India?
4. Check the national income statistics of India and analyse the growth of national income, per capita income and check the distribution of income among different percentile groups of population.
5. Does an improvement in the income indicators ensure development? Why?