

OBJECTIVE

1. Understand the characteristics of less developed economies.
2. Be able to draw a distinction between developing and developed countries based their characteristic features
3. Evaluate factors which are impediments to the process of economic development.
4. Be able to grasp how can we develop our own economy and society.
5. Understand how human development can be measured.