

OBJECTIVE

- To acquaint students with the constituents of food.
- To give the students' knowledge about the carbohydrates
- To provide information about proteins
- To acquaint students about the lipids
- To provide information about essential functions of food constituents.