

Glossary

Olfactometer- An instrument for controlled (volume, temperature, humidity, flow rate) presentation of odor stimuli, used for measuring thresholds and other quantitative values.

Panel –A group of people (observers, subjects, judges) comprising a test population which has been specially selected or designated in some manner, e.g., they may be trained or have special knowledge or skills or may merely be available and predesignated.

Aromatic -Possessing a fragrant, slightly pungent, aroma, usually pleasant.