

Glossary:

Olfaction-The sense of smell

Phenomenology- A method of observation admitting subjective experience as a legitimate object of scientific investigation, i.e. no analysis is made of the description of the immediate experience.

Odor-That which is smelled. Odor may refer to the stimulus or to the sensation resulting from the stimulation of olfactory receptors in the nasal cavity by gaseous material