

Glossary

1. Secondary Data

Secondary data are compiled by someone other than the user.

2. Sample Data

Information collected through sample inquiry is called sample data.

3. Census Data

Information collected through census inquiry is called census data.

4. Discrimination

The ability or power to see or make fine distinctions is discrimination.

5. Survey

Survey or experiment is a device of obtaining the desired data.

6. Population Census

The Population Census provides the fullest and most reliable picture of the country's population and its characteristics at a particular point of time.

7. Published

It is the act of publishing or making known or notification to the people at large, either by words, writing, or printing etc.

8. Unpublished

Unpublished sources means which is not available in print for distribution and sale.

9. Biography

A biography is a detailed description or account of someone's life from birth to death.

10. Autobiography

Autobiography is a biography of a person written by that person.

11. Demographic

Demographic is a pertaining to characteristics of the population, such as race, sex, age, household size, and to population growth and density.

12. Bulletins

A brief report, especially an official statement on a matter of public interest issued for immediate publication or broadcast.

13. Poverty

Poverty is the state of one who lacks a certain amount of material possessions or money.

14. Technical Reports

Technical reports are accounts of work done on research projects.

15. Trade Journals

Trade journals contain articles that discuss practical information concerning various fields.