

Glossary

1. Attributes
It means a quality or characteristic.
2. Arbitrary
It is based on random choice or personnel whim or implicit.
3. Vague
Uncertain or indefinite character or meaning.
4. Dichotomy
A division or contrast between two things that are opposed or entirely different.
5. Frequencies
The rate at which something occurs over a particular period of time
6. Contrary
Opposite in nature, direction or meaning Usually opposed to one another.
7. Association
It's an conceptual connection between group of objects, people or characteristics.
Relationship between two phenomena.
8. Partial
Existing in only some parts, incomplete.
9. Illusory
It is based on illusion; not real.
10. Notation
A system of written symbols used to represent numbers, amounts or elements; it's an annotation.
11. Terminology
It's a body of terms used in a subject of study; terms which describe the meaning.
12. Manifold
It means many or various; Having many different forms.
13. Representation
An image, model, symbols or other depiction of something; action of representing.
14. Consistence
The state of being consistent; done in the same way over a time; unchanging in standard over a time.
15. Demarcation
The action of fixing boundaries or limits.