

Glossary

1. Acquaintance

It is the personal knowledge or information about someone or something.

2. Commission

It is the act of granting certain powers or the authority to carry out a particular task or duty.

3. Demographic

A portion of a population, especially considered as consumers.

4. Enterprise

Industrious, systematic activity, especially when directed toward profit.

5. Estimate

It is a tentative evaluation or rough calculation, as of worth, quantity, or size.

6. Expenditure

It is the act or process of spending money or time.

7. Indebtedness

It is the state of being indebted.

8. Morbidity

It is the rate of incidence of a disease.

9. Organisation

It is a group of people who work together for administering something.

10. Pertain

It is to have reference, relation, or relevance.

11. Population

The set of individuals, items, or data from which a statistical sample is taken.

12. Publication

It is the act or process of publishing printed matter.

13. Sample

A portion, piece, or segment is representative of a whole.

14. Steer

It is to follow or move in a set course.

15. Survey

A gathering of a sample of data or opinions considered to be representative of a whole.