Glossary

1. Slack Time
   A slack period is one in which there is no work or activity.

2. Consecutively
   It refers to, as a result of; because of the reason given.

3. Network Diagram
   Network diagram may refer to project network; a flow chart showing the sequence of a project's tasks and their dependencies.

4. Successor
   Successor is a person or thing that succeeds another; someone who, or something which succeeds or comes after.

5. Predecessor
   A person who held a job or office before the current holder; a thing that has been followed or replaced by another.

6. Redeployment
   Redeployment refers to deploy again or differently; again assigning the same resources.

7. Float
   Float means to rest or cause to rest on a surface; be suspended freely; move in a leisurely way.

8. Tail
   It is something extending downwards, outwards, or back like an animal; the rear part of an aircraft.

9. Geography
   Geography is the science that studies the lands, the features, the inhabitants, and the phenomena of the Earth.

10. Stock
    Stock is a supply of goods or materials available for sale or use.

11. Packing
    It's a material used to protect fragile goods in transit.

12. Arrow Diagram
    Arrow diagram is a network diagramming technique in which activities are represented by arrows.

13. Proceedings
    It's an event or a series of activities with a set procedure.

14. Occurrence
    Occurrence is the fact or frequency of something occurring; an incident or event.

15. Dummy
    Dummy is an imitation of a real or original object, intended to be used as a practical substitute.