

Glossary

1. Demography
The study of the structure of human populations using statistics relating to births, wealth, disease. etc.
2. Survey
Examine and record the area & features of say land, area, community. etc
3. Infant
A very young child or baby.
4. Mortality
Death, especially on a large scale; the number of deaths in a given area or period.
5. Fertility
Able to conceive young or produce seed; ability to give birth.
6. Retrospective
Looking back on or dealing with past events or situation; development of an artist's work over a period of time.
7. Conjunction
An instance of two or more events occurring at the same point in time or space.
8. Precision
The quality, conditions or facts of being precise; marked by or designed for accuracy and exactness.
9. Cartographic
The science or practice of drawing maps.
10. Longitudinal
It means running lengthwise; involved information about an individual or group gathered over a prolonged period.
11. Census
An official count or survey of a population.
12. Dissemination
It means to spread widely.
13. Nuptiality

The frequency or incidence of marriage within a population.
14. Neonatal
It is related to newborn baby or mammal.
15. Enumeration

It means to mention one by one; establish the number of.