

Glossary

1. Mortality
The state of being death, especially at a large scale; the number of death in a given area or period.
2. Infant
A very young child or baby.
3. Fetal
It denotes to the characteristics of a fetus, with the back curved forwards and the limbs folded in front of the body.
4. Maternal
It refers to the mother's side of the family; say for example, maternal grandfather.
5. Crude death rate
Occurrence of death in a natural or raw state; rate at which crude death has taken place.
6. Expectancy
Hope or anticipation that something will happen.
7. Childbearing
It is a process of giving birth to children.
8. Depleted
It means to reduce the number or quantity.
9. Pattern
It's an repeated decorative design; an arrangement or sequence regularly found in comparable object.
10. Structure
It's an arrangement of and relations between the parts of something complex.
11. Summation

The process of adding things together; sum total.
12. Geographical
The relative arrangement of places and physical features.
13. Composition

It's a nature of the ingredients or constituents of a whole or mixture; a thing composed of various elements.
14. Reproduction

The action or process of reproducing; process of child birth.
15. Computation

It's a mathematical calculation; use of tools and components for the purpose of calculation.